An Ode. Thou Monument Divine, thy sacred height, For aye, shall gleam in light effulgent, pure, The purer light of upper fields, where angels bright, From glory came, to sing for God the notes Evangel - Glad tidings of great joy - Of Peace on Earth, good-will to men - Sublimest theme to mortals ever named! And, high above thy shining brow, thy glory Crest - The diamond-glistening Banner of Columbia - Shall, by the winds of God, the grand rehearsal Ever chant, of Peace on Earth, good-will to men! And, from its shining pinnacle, the Eagle bold And proud - America s Immortal Emblem Bird! - Shall plume his pinions, strong for Liberty, And sound in notes, the Earth to pierce around, From pole to pole, the message welcome, of Freedom, Humanity, and loving Brotherhood To all the tribes of waiting, sorrowing men! And, chimes of Independence Bell, About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes...
