Reviews

This type of publication is every thing and helped me seeking ahead and much more. It usually fails to charge too much. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Excerpt: . summer weather, the balance of the day can well be spent sailing down the Bay on a Coney Island steamer, up the Hudson von any of the numerous excursions), or along the Sound to Glen Island. Coney Island, with its Bohemian freedom, cosmopolitan assemblage, and excellent sea-bathing, has the advantage of being near at hand. But the various excursions and nearby resorts will be found fully described in Chapter VIII. The advertisements in the daily newspapers give the best information of regular and special excursions, and also contain particulars as to time and place of starting, price, etc. THIRD DAY. The business and shopping centers of the city will necessarily be included in the sights of Xew York. Let us start on Broadway at Aid st., and walk southward. Here are the Metropolitan Opera House, the Casino, the handsome building of the New York . Herald, (notice the presses and machinery through the glass side-windows), Herald Square Theater. Koster and Bial s Music Hall (on 34th st. west of Broadway), and Greeley sq., with the statue of the great editor of the Tribune. The stores, with an occasional theater or hotel, now occupy the attention. Every conceivable kind of goods is displayed. Let us pass southward, past Pelmonico s. the Hoffman House, and the palatial white front of the Fifth Avenue Hotel. Then 23d st. westward, or to the right hand, brings us to the shopping center. Sixth ave. is reached, aml southward,...
