Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Life and Works of Jesus, According to St. Mark The primary aim of these studies is to present a simple, vivid outline of the Life of Jesus, using St. Mark's record and emphasizing His mighty works. In the study of the last week of the Life portions of the other gospels are also used. An effort has been made at the same time to bring out the geography of Palestine, the manners and customs of its people, the various classes among them - in short, to give the setting of the picture. The studies will be found also to form a study of the book of Mark, and for this purpose the characteristics of this gospel have been constantly pointed out. It has been thought wise, in connection with these studies, to suggest about twenty-five familiar Bible verses, which, together with their location, are to be memorized; and also to ask the students to learn where to find certain well-known parts of the Bible - i.e., the Commandments, the Lord's Prayer, etc. Other verses and chapters may be substituted for these to suit the needs of the class. There has been inserted at irregular intervals a number of written prayers, not necessarily on the subject of the day's study, and not intended to form a liturgy, but to bring before the students the prayers of others in order to teach them to pray. In like manner meditations have been inserted on various days, designated Thought for Today. Through these it is hoped to guide the student's thought to the teaching of the lesson for that particular day, with the hope...
